

2020 May Wright Sewall

The Indianapolis Propylaeum is proud to honor Deborah Hearn Smith and Vi Simpson with the 2020 May Wright Sewall Leadership Award. These women's accomplishments have impacted the lives of girls and women through their work in the public sector.

Vi Simpson

Vi Simpson has led Indiana for many years in working to bring equity for women throughout her work as a legislator and community advocate. She was first elected as the Monroe County Auditor in 1981, followed by her Successful run as an Indiana State Senator for District 40 from 1984-2012, where she served as the Minority Leave from 2008-2012. Simpson worked as President of Vi Simpson and Company from 1982 to 1988 and has been Executive Director of the Heritage Education Foundation since 1989. Senator Simpson was the first woman to serve on and lead the State Budget Committee and in 2008. Additional accomplishments as a State Senator include co-writing the legislation that enacted the Indiana Commission for Women in 1996.

2020 May Wright Sewall

The Indianapolis Propylaeum is proud to honor Deborah Hearn Smith and Vi Simpson with the 2020 May Wright Sewall Leadership Award. These women's accomplishments have impacted the lives of girls and women through their work in the public sector.

Vi Simpson

Vi Simpson has led Indiana for many years in working to bring equity for women throughout her work as a legislator and community advocate. She was first elected as the Monroe County Auditor in 1981, followed by her Successful run as an Indiana State Senator for District 40 from 1984-2012, where she served as the Minority Leave from 2008-2012. Simpson worked as President of Vi Simpson and Company from 1982 to 1988 and has been Executive Director of the Heritage Education Foundation since 1989. Senator Simpson was the first woman to serve on and lead the State Budget Committee and in 2008. Additional accomplishments as a State Senator include co-writing the legislation that enacted the Indiana Commission for Women in 1996.

