

THE INDIANAPOLIS PROPYLAEUM PRESENTS

The Marilyn K. Glick Women's Enrichment Series

Lecture Speakers 2017-2018

October 19, 2017

Dr. Ora Pescovitz and Naomi Pescovitz

This renowned mother-daughter team will open the series, discussing their steps toward success in the medical and television journalism fields and how they have negotiated their relationship through the growth of their careers. Recently named president of Oakland University, Dr. Ora Pescovitz has years of academic, medical and business experience. Naomi Pescovitz was the weekend anchor at WTHR and recently joined FOX 9 in Minneapolis.

February 22, 2018

Martha Hoover

A pioneering restaurateur and advocate for locally grown, healthy food, Martha Hoover has transformed the local dining landscape. She has expanded her Patachou family of restaurants while remaining relevant and active in the community. Profits from Hoover's Public Greens restaurant provide healthy meals to hungry children.

Inspiring the next generation of female leaders

April 26, 2018

Angela Brown

Critically acclaimed opera singer Angela Brown began singing in her grandfather's Indianapolis church at the age of 5. Her Metropolitan Opera debut in the role of Aida catapulted her onto the world's prestigious opera and symphonic stages. Angela Brown has taken opera to the masses in her edgy, yet educational presentation, Opera...From a Sistah's Point of View.